

ACCIDENT & EMERGENCY POLICY STATEMENT

- Personnel trained in First Aid to be available on site at all times.
- Fully equipped first aid box, eye wash etc. to be available on site at all times.
- Details of the First Aider identity and the location of the first aid kit will be included within site induction.
- Telephone numbers and details of emergency services to be exhibited.
- Site telephone number and correct address to be exhibited.
- Ambulance authority to be advised when 25 or more operatives are working on site.
- Where necessary, contingency plans for dealing with accidents of potential high casualty will be made in association with emergency services.
- A fire plan will be produced and displayed on site.
- Details of the fire plan will be included within site induction.
- Operatives will be instructed as to their duties i.e. how to :-
 - Raise the alarm
 - Fight the fire – if appropriate
 - Escape and evacuate the premises
 - Location of the assembly point
- Adequate storage will be provided in respect of highly flammable liquids, materials, fuels and liquid petroleum gases that comply with the appropriate regulations.

Signed

Date:.....

Position: Director